

Literacy: Texts: The Bog Baby by Jeanne Willis, information texts linked to flowers, plants and growing.

Phase 3 and 4 Storytime phonics which consolidates all the sounds learnt so far.

Learning alternative sounds when applicable,
Writing labels, lists, captions and simple sentences.

Talking about books read.

PSHE:

Me and my world!
Thinking about what it means to belong to a community.

Van Gogh

How does your garden grow?
Spring B 2021

Physical Development

Daily fine motor activities

Daily handwriting for letter formation

Using the outside area to develop gross motor skills

RE: Salvation

Why do Christians put a cross in an Easter Garden?

Mathematics: Texts:

Number:

Building 9 and 10

Counting and ordering numbers to 20

Estimating amounts

Shape and Space:

2d and 3d shapes- Naming common shapes and describing their properties

Using everyday language to talk about length, capacity and weight.

Understanding the World:

Growing beans in a bag; understanding what plants need to grow healthily

Observing flowers and trees and how they grow

Using IT in everyday contexts

Expressive Arts and Design

Rhymes and songs linked to gardens and minibeasts

Exploring different shades of blue using paint and collage

Creating a Bog Baby out of salt dough and materials

Building different habitats

Communication and

Language:

Speaking:

Use of vocabulary by learning technical words linked to our Science topic.

Verbal instructions

Listening:

Following verbal instructions
Anticipating key events in stories

Responding to stories and ideas with relevant comments
Listening to what others say and responding appropriately